SUBJECT: Letter of Welcome

TO: [REDACTED] 25X1C8c

1. I would like to take this opportunity on behalf of the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, to officially welcome you to Edwards Air Force Base, and WESP-IV. During the next few months while you are assigned to this organization, you will receive an intensive course of instruction which has been specifically designed to qualify you for the U-2 program. Your selection to receive this training is indicative of your superior professional ability and experience. I feel confident that you will find this program very rewarding; both from a personal standpoint in flying the U-2 and accomplishing a mission of great importance to [REDACTED] and the Free World.

2. The attached policy outline has been prepared for your use and basically outlines the procedures which I will expect you to follow while you are attached to this organization. While they are directive in nature, these procedures should acquaint you with all aspects of our training program. It is my expressed desire to provide you with the most professional training available in the United States Air Force; Your cooperation during this period will greatly assist my Staff in accomplishing this training objective. If I may be of any assistance to you during your training program, please feel free to call on me at any time. Again, my personal congratulations to you for your selection to the U-2 program; I am looking forward to meeting you at the earliest opportunity.
